

AGRONIN, Solomon (Sam) Issac

On May 20, 2007, Sam Agronin of Edmonton passed away in Netanya Israel, at the age of 85 years.

He is survived by his children Ida and Ari, brother-in-law Joseph Doz, as well as numerous good friends.

Sam, born in Syracuse N.Y, maintained a full and active life, proudly serving in the U.S, with the 14th Air Force Flying Tigers in China, as an Instrumentation Specialist. While working in Canada he met his late wife Hinda (Doz) and set up roots in Edmonton. He dabbled in city politics and founded several local businesses including: Western Surplus Sales, Archibald Galleries, and Supply Sergeant. Through retirement he continued to travel the world and enjoy life, spending his winters in Israel and his summers traveling and attending his Air force reunions. He would charm you with his warm heart, fascinating stories, humour and quick wit. He meant so much to many people and he will be missed.

Services will be held on Friday, May 25, 2007 at 2:30 p.m. at the Edmonton Jewish Cemetery, 7622-101 Avenue with snacks and refreshments to follow at a location to be determined. Friends are welcome. Donations may be made to the Jewish drop in Centre, Heart and Stroke, or a charity of your choice. Cards can be mailed to #2686, 8882-170 Street, Edmonton, AB T5T 4J2.
