BERCOVICH, Sara

On Tuesday, June 12th, 2012 Sara Bercovich passed away at the age of 86.

Sara is survived by her son Dr. Marvin Bercovich (Marlyn), daughter Harriet Minuk (Jeff), grandchildren Blake, Hayley and Aaron, brother-in-law Murray Bercovich, and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Arnold in 1992. Sara was born in Pinsk, Poland, migrating to Canada in 1928. The majority of her youth was spent in Edmonton where she went on to obtain her pharmacy degree from the University of Alberta. In 1948 Sara married Arnold and relocated to Regina. Life in Regina was fondly remembered as a time filled with friends and close community ties.

After selling the Broadway Theatre in 1971, the family moved to Edmonton to start a new chapter. Sara put out her shingle and resumed practicing as a pharmacist at that time, while continuing to raise her family and reacquaint herself with a community she had left many years before. Throughout her life, Sara had a thirst for knowledge, which was clearly exhibited by her zest for sharing newspaper clippings on just about any topic imaginable. She had an appreciation for many types of entertainment but loved nothing better than to watch a good movie or a thought provoking television program. Sara thoroughly enjoyed gardening, taking special delight in using the fruits of her labor in meal preparation. Cooking was a definite passion, the smells still a strong memory, evoking indelible images of happy and more carefree times.

Fiercely independent and proud, Sara lived life on her own terms until the very end. She will always be remembered with great admiration for her intelligence, determination, and integrity.

Funeral Services were held on June 14th, 2012. Donations may be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Canada, or Canadian Hadassah-WIZO.
