Elly passed away suddenly , in Dallas, Texas, from a heart attack. Pre-deceased by his father, Saul, in 1981, he is lovingly remembered by his mother, Helen, of Edmonton, his sons Yeshai, Oren, Ronen and Raviv , his former wife, Carol, his brother, Arnie (Pam), of Vancouver, his sister Bonnie (Blaine), of St. Albert, and numerous nephews, nieces, other relatives, friends and colleagues.

Elly was born and raised in Edmonton. Later, he moved to Israel, taught at Hebrew University, and, for over 20 years, worked as an executive at Yad Vashem, Israel's official memorial to the Holocaust. In 1999, he returned to Canada to attend UBC where he worked on his PhD, and then moved to Dallas, where, at the time of his passing, he was Executive Director of the Dallas Holocaust Memorial Museum. He was a well-respected lecturer and world renowned expert on the Holocaust.
