

EDELMANN, Eugene (Gene)

On March 25, 2004 in Edmonton at the age of 81.

He will be lovingly remembered and sadly missed by Judy, his wife of 52 years, sons Sid (Betsy) of Washington, DC, Norm of Edmonton, and Rob (Clare) of Toronto and grandsons Nathan and Alexander (Washington), as well as his cousins and their families.

Born in Hungary, in 1923, Eugene survived the holocaust, where the rest of his family, parents (Janka and Soma) and sisters (Gyongyi and Maca) perished. Eugene came to Canada in 1948. After an initial stay in Toronto, (where he met and married Judy), they moved to Edmonton in 1956, where they started the Bon Ton Bakery and a family. He was a devoted husband, father and grandfather, a committed member of his community and a loyal friend. Gene had many hobbies and loved the great outdoors.

The funeral will be held Sunday, March 28, 2:00 p.m. at the Chevra Kadisha Chapel, 12313-105 Avenue. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Heart Stoke Foundation of Alberta or The Jewish Senior Citizens Drop in Centre (780-488-4241, 10052-117 Street).
