

Call 1-877-798-8818 or 416-886-2925 • Fax 1-877-592-2982
 Email: notice@nationalpost.com
nationalpost.com/classifieds

DEATHS

DEATHS

LESLIE GREEN
Order of Canada, CM, Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, LLD
 (London, UK, LLD (Hon. University of Alberta)
November 5, 1920 – November 26, 2011, Edmonton, Alberta.

Doctor Leslie Green passed away suddenly on November 26, 2011, on his way to attend a concert at the Edmonton Symphony, of which he was a former Board member.

Leslie Green was born in London and educated at the Bavenant Foundation School, from where he went to University College London as a student in the Faculty of Laws in 1938. He graduated in 1941 with first class honours and was top of the list.

From University, he went straight into the British Army as a private in the King's Royal Rifle Corps. After the outbreak of the Pacific War, however, he was sent to the School of Oriental and African Studies, where he spent fourteen months learning to read and translate Japanese. He was then transferred to the Intelligence Corps and sent to India. He was transferred to the Prosecution Section GHQ attaining the rank of Major and Deputy Military Prosecutor at age 26. It was during these years in India that he met his wife of 63 years.

He taught International Law and Relations at University College London, and was Dean of the Law Faculty, National University of Singapore, before being invited to accept a newly created Chair at the University of Alberta in 1965. He lectured in various Universities across the world.

He was a world renowned international lawyer and an expert in the law of war and anti-terrorism. He advised several governments and was the legal advisor to the Canadian Delegation at the Geneva Diplomatic Conference responsible for revising the Geneva Conventions, compiled the Canadian Manual of Armed Conflict Law in 2000, and received the Judge Advocate General's Commendation in 2005.

Distinguished "University Professor" and Professor Emeritus at the University of Alberta, he was the author of several books, the latest of which was "The Contemporary Law of Armed Conflict" (University of Manchester Press, 3 editions, 1993, 2000 and 2008) which is consulted by the armies of the western world. Earlier works included "The Law of Nations: And The New World with Olive Dickason" (University of Alberta Press, 1989) and several editions of "International Law Through The Cases" (1951, second edition Stevens, London, 1959; Praeger, New York, 1959; Stevens, 1962; third Stevens, 1970; Oceana, New York, 1970; and fourth Carswell, Canada, 1978; Oceana, New York, 1978). He was the first non-American and only Canadian to hold the Stockton Chair of International Law at the US Naval War College in Rhode Island, as well as the first person to be invited to extend his term.

He loved life and enjoyed it till the end. He will be missed by family, friends and colleagues throughout the world. He is survived by his wife, Lilian, and daughter, Anne (Holger Petersen).

Permitter, Herbert

Born on March 12, 1922, passed away suddenly and peacefully on December 1, 2011.

Herbert is survived by his wife Bernice, three sons, Alan, Edward and Ronald; their wives, Cathy, Robin, Caroline; nine granddaughters, Heather, Lisa, Jenny, Sara, Mindy, Dara, Kayla, Eliama and Ilanori; Herbert served in an overseas RCA posting during WW2. In July, 1948, married the love of his life Bernice and moved to London, ON. In 1949, he found and built a successful chartered accounting practice from which he retired in 1981. During his life he served on many public and University boards but was most proud of being President of St. Shalom Synagogue during its inception and building. He also served with many local and national Jewish organizations. Herbert was greatly devoted to his family. He looked forward to extended family dinners, and he gained much pride from all other occasions and successes of his growing family over the years. He enjoyed a profound love, knowledge and appreciation of the classical music and art — the sounds of the Metropolitan Opera were omnipresent in the household on weekends. Funeral Services will be at St. Shalom Synagogue at 534 Huron St. in London, ON Sunday, December 4th, 2011 at 2 p.m. Interment at St. Shalom Cemetery. Arrangements have been entrusted to LOGAN FUNERAL HOME (371 Dundas St. London, Ontario (519) 433-6181). Those wishing to make a donation in his memory may do so to UJA London, JNF or GMB. Online condolences can be expressed at: www.loganfh.ca

Arise will be planted, by the Logan Funeral Home.

as a living memorial to Harry Permitter.

Logan Funeral Home

SHINER, Sandy (nee SIV)

Peacefully on Tuesday, November 29, 2011. Adoring and adored wife of Bernie Berger and the late Huck

MARGARET ELEANOR STACKHOUSE

With profound sadness and