A pioneer member of Edmon-ton's Jewish community, Louis Kline, 81, died Monday in the University Hospital after a long illness.

He came to Edmonton from Montreal in 1904 with his father, H. B. Kline, the founder of H. B.

 were one of the first Jewish families to settle in the city.

Mr. Kline helped manage the store until his father's death in 1933. He then carried on the business with his sister, Mrs. Anne Wasserman, until her death in 1962.

He retired from the business in 1963 and his nephew, Malcolm Wasserman, now manages the firm.

Mr. Kline served overseas during the First World War. He was a member of the Beth Israel Synagogue, B'nai B'rith and Chevra Kadisha.

He is survived by his wife, Sar-rah; a brother, Irving of Edmonton; a stepson, Leon Kagna of Edmonton, and a step-daughter, Marcia of New York.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Che-vra Kadisha Chapel, 10440 123rd St. Bural will be in the Edmonton Jewish Cemetery.
