There was a request made by the family of Lottie Lyons, that it include, as part of <sup>this</sup> days service, the passage in the Book of Proverbs. In 31:10 - "a woman of valor"

Initially I was reluctant to do so. The Bible portrays the ideal Biblical woman. A woman whose life revolves around her husband & children. <sup>a woman with</sup> who has few outside interests. The woman we admire today is not the same as her Biblical counterpart. <sup>She</sup> She has accomplishments of her own. Her achievements are not based on "Her Husband prominence at the gates". Today's woman is judged as a personality in her own right.

Lottie Lyons, was distinguished in that she fit both descriptions then + now, old + young, a woman of valor for all ages.

A woman of valor who completes? She is more precious than unities. The heart of her husband + trust in Her.

Lottie + David were a couple very much in love → ~~David believed~~ that + their deaths so close together in time, bring them together once again. David <sup>believed</sup> that Lottie <sup>outlived</sup> her doctor diagnosis by sheer will. She was not going to allow dad to go 2nd.

Judy remember <sup>them as</sup> Her as a loving adoring couple. <sup>"the"</sup> ~~she~~ had a collapse by "the lake" she recalls their room had just enough space for a little double bed. She remember the 2 of them <sup>lying</sup> - Bed Cuddling + hugging age had not dimmed their Romance

Even when lying in intensive care, he would hear <sup>MOM'S</sup> ~~mom's~~ walk coming down the hallway + the Beep Beep of the <sup>medical</sup> ~~medical~~ machine he was attached to, would testify to his love.

He heard of Her husband + must in Her. R R R R R

Like Her + the ideal Biblical woman, Family meant everything to Lotte. She taught Her children the Value of long loving relationships

David says that in she had a single virtue it was service to Her family. <sup>There was warmth + understanding in</sup> There was warmth + understanding in the Home.

Lotte was capable of understanding <sup>what</sup> Her children were doing, +
she had a keen - in Balthus wicked - sense of Humor.

David recall the sandwich she would pack for lunch when he was a student at the university, when she suspected he was trading them, she <sup>placed</sup> substituted a piece of shoe leather between the slice of bread. When David came home, she asked him if he had enjoyed the ~~sandwich~~ he lunch. "yes Mom" he answered. The friend to whom he had been giving the sandwich was understandably <sup>reluctant</sup> ~~leary~~ when he was invited to dinner.

Rickie

Ricky remember the Hospitality that characterized the household, especially on Friday Night when a friend from the university would always find a place to eat. The proverb Tell us the sp pek "she rises while at a still night & supplies provision for the Household". Lettie was an excellent cook ~~person~~ & used the House to be filled w/ guests, when the conversation was lively & the food, anything but shoe leather. She was the center of the family. She took care - first of the father & then her husband ~~and~~ & when people ~~Go~~ To describe both fully, however, the writers of the prevents would have to add some paragraphs + revise some <sup>others</sup> ~~of the~~ ones.

It was not merely an extension of the family, she was a woman capable <sup>Very</sup> much of our time, capable & educated.

She was, at the time of her graduation, the youngest graduate in Math at the U of A.

She was a well-read & articulate woman. She was a woman who w/ dignity, who enjoyed & frequented the opera & the symphony.
She recalled w/ pride for the time she had tea w/ Eleanor Roosevelt for <sup>part of a</sup>
David speaks of her as "a good teacher about life" - Hardness familiar

Her mouth is full of wisdom, Her tongue w/ kindly teaching.

Ricky recalls that even when she was ill, her family & friends called her, not out of a sense of duty, but because they genuinely liked talking to her.

King Solomon's "woma of valor" would limit her relations to her husband + children.

Lettie, on the other hand had many friends. She was outgoing + gregarious. David recalls that she even liked the people she didn't like.

Uncle Jack says that Lettie was the only person he had ever known who honestly had no enemies.

Lettie's love for people led her to assume a position of leadership in the Jewish Community. She served in many Jewish organizations rising to the highest level in her most loved cause.

Haddassa ~~W~~ Wizo - she was the peacemaker for the group of women who shield ones from confrontation + tried to bring compromise ideas - WIZO in the net who would find just a woman of valor

we mourn today the death of one who lived well.

a woman who had the joy of 2 loving sons + 4 grand children.

a woman who was capable in so many areas.

a woman who had a lifelong romance w/ her husband
