

FRED PODERSKY

Services Tuesday For F. Podersky

Funeral services for Frederick Podersky, who died last week in New York while visiting relatives, will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday from Connelly-McKinley Funeral Home.

Rabbi B. Leon Hurwitz will officiate and burial will be in the Edmonton Jewish cemetery.

Mr. Podersky was born in Edmonton and educated at Oliver and Victoria schools. He took an active interest in all sports and was one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Edmonton Flyers Hockey Club. He was engaged in the furniture business, in partnership with his father.

FRED PODERSKY

Fred Podersky Dies in New York

Fred Podersky, one of Edmonton's best-known young business figures, died in New York city Wednesday.

Born in Edmonton, Mr. Podersky was 30 years of age. His wife resides in this city.

He is the son of Louis Podersky, head of Podersky Furniture Store here.

Secretary-treasurer of the Podersky firm, Mr. Podersky went to New York two weeks ago to take treatments. He did not respond to treatment as expected, and word of his death was received by his

Fred Podersky Dies in New York

Sportsmen learned with regret of the death in New York Wednesday of Fred Podersky, a former Edmontonian. He was a brother of Dan Podersky, who once held the city junior golf championship, and a brother-in-law of Henry Singer, one of sport's staunchest supporters in these parts.

Fred Podersky, 31, Dies In New York

A well-known Edmonton sport fan, Frederick Podersky, 31, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Podersky, died in a New York hospital Wednesday night.

Mr. Podersky became ill, while visiting relatives in New York, with his mother.

He was born in Edmonton and attended Victoria and Oliver schools. He took an active interest in sport in the province and was one of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Edmonton Flyers hockey club. He worked with his father in the furniture business.

Surviving are his parents, his widow who is in Vancouver visiting a sister, a brother, Dan, who is one of the city's top golfers, and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Singer, and Edith Podersky, of Edmonton.

Mr. Podersky Sr. left the city by airplane Wednesday night for New York. The body will be brought to Edmonton for burial.

father here Wednesday.

The father left Wednesday night for New York and is expected to bring the body back to Edmonton for burial.

In addition to his wife, father and mother, Mr. Podersky is survived by two sisters, Miss Edith Podersky and Mrs. Henry Singer, both of Edmonton and one brother Dan Podersky.

IN RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF THE LATE

Fred Podersky

WHOSE DEATH OCCURRED
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24th

OUR STORES WILL BE CLOSED TUESDAY,
MARCH 30th

HENRY SINGER'S

Towne Hall Shops

10229 Jasper Avenue

10456 Jasper Avenue