

WARHAFT, Rebecca

February 20, 1919-February 19, 2002

Rebecca Warhaft passed away peacefully at the University Hospital one day before her 83rd birthday.

She will be lovingly remembered by her devoted husband of 61 years, Leon Warhaft; and her four daughters, Sheila Porter, Joyce (Alan) Hoge, Bonnie Heltay, Penny (Philip) Hardin; as well as 10 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Becky was an active and vital member of the community. She was a lifetime member of Edmonton Hadassah-WIZO, a devoted member of Beth Shalom Synagogue, and she was involved with many volunteer organizations, particularly the Canadian Cancer Society. Her days were always full. She looked forward to her weekly bridge games, she loved to garden (her peonies were magnificent), and she was an exceptional cook and baker. She always maintained a vital interest in Canadian and world affairs, Israel and the Jewish people. Becky gave tirelessly of herself to family, friends, neighbors and her community. She derived her greatest joy from her family. She will be sorely missed.

Funeral will take place on Thursday, February 21 at 11:00 a.m. at the Edmonton Jewish Cemetery, 7622-101 Avenue, Edmonton, AB. In lieu of flowers, donations to Edmonton Hadassah-WIZO or Beth Shalom Synagogue gratefully appreciated.
